1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 7, 8, 11, 14, 26 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lichtenhan et al. US 2004/0068075.

This rejection relies on the rationale noted in paragraph 5, supra. Applicants have amended claim 7 to require at least one fluorine atom attached to the R group. While such a group is not specifically taught by Lichtenhan et al., the teachings therein are sufficient to render obvious such a group to one having ordinary skill in the art. Paragraph 10 teaches that halides can be present on the R groups. Given the limited number of members in the halide group, combined with the fact that fluorine substituted alkyl groups are commonly found on silicone compounds, the skilled artisan would have found the replacement of at least one H atom with a fluorine atom to have been obvious. Applicants “take the position that the subject matter of the amended claims is neither disclosed nor suggested by Lichtenhan et al. ‘075” but this position alone is insufficient to overcome the obviousness of the instant claims.

3. Claims 7, 8, 11, 14, 26 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lichtenhan et al. 2003/0055193.

The Examiner relies on the same rationale detailed in the previous office action and consistent with that noted above in this rejection. Again applicants’ mere statement that ‘193 does not teach or suggest the claimed subject matter is not sufficient to overcome this rejection.

4. Claims 12, 13, 30 and 31 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The prior art fails to suggest the selection of the specific fluorinated R groups as claimed.

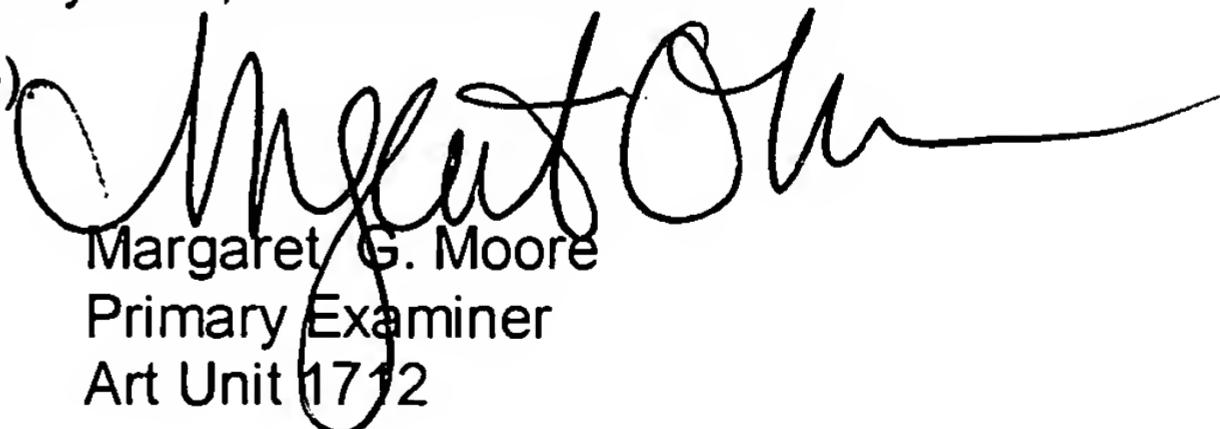

5. Claims 15 to 19 are allowed.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
